15th BERLIN CONFERENCE AND NEW YEAR'S RECEPTION

Entrepreneurial chance or deep uncertainty –
how business is dealing with Brexit

THURSDAY, 24 JANUARY 2019

DEAR MEMBERS AND GUESTS,

You and your partner, colleagues and friends are cordially invited to our 15th Annual Berlin Conference and Reception, our first event celebrating the 100 years' anniversary of founding of the BCCG:

Entrepreneurial chance or deep uncertainty – how business is dealing with Brexit

Brexit will happen very soon, on 29 March 2019. Major compromises have been reached in the negotiations between the EU and UK, but some main issues remained on the table despite all efforts.

Will the remaining time be enough to finalise the negotiations successfully and to avoid a no-deal Brexit with all its negative consequences for business and people affected by it? How are businesses preparing for it?

Banks and industry are most concerned about the consequences and have taken up early measures to minimize the negative effects of Brexit.

Simultaneously, we have to look ahead, what will happen after the official exit date? Will we be able to reach reasonable terms in order to maintain frictionless trade and economic as well as political relations for the people in Britain and Germany? What needs to be done to minimise any negative effects?

We would like to discuss these and other related topics with you on 24 January, with an outlook to the year 2019.

We are looking forward to your participation.

Kind regards,

Michael Schmidt
President

Andreas Meyer-Schwickerath
Managing Director
