

Proudly Invites Members
Of The BCCG And Their Guests
To Our Dinner

On behalf of The British Chamber of Commerce In Germany I have great pleasure in inviting you to our Dinner which will take place on Tuesday 17th March 2009 commencing at 7.00pm at The Industrie Club, Elberfelder Strasse 6 , Dusseldorf.

Our guest speaker will be David Frost, Director General of the British Chambers Of Commerce who will be speaking about “ The Economic Mess! “

David Frost has been Director General of the British Chambers of Commerce since 2003. Prior to this he was Chief Executive of Coventry and Warwickshire Chamber of Commerce and Business Link, an organisation with a £14m turnover and 160 staff.

The British Chambers of Commerce represents 100,000 businesses through a network of 56 Accredited Chambers of Commerce. The role of the BCC is to promote the interests of British business and represent the interests of the Chambers of Commerce. A subsidiary company, BCC Enterprises, develops a range of commercial activities for the benefit of Chambers and their members.

David is also Chairman of the National Council for Graduate Entrepreneurship - programmes to encourage enterprise amongst young people. He is also on the Board of NEAB - Reserve Forces.

David is married with two teenage daughters and lives in Sutton Coldfield. His interests are motorcycling and cycling and he is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts and a Liveryman of the Worshipful Company of Loriners.

The evening will commence with a champagne reception where there will be the opportunity to network. There will then be a 4 course dinner followed by a speech (in English) from David Frost. The evening is expected to end at 22.30pm.

Dress code is business suit.

The cost of the evening includes the dinner, wine and the reception.

We look forward to seeing you all there!

Please reply by email or by fax at the latest by Friday 13th March 2009.
