Dear all Members of the local British clubs and associations ,

At last the arrangements are complete and this year's HBC Open Golf tournament will take place at the Golf Club Hittfeld on Friday, 28th of August 2009. Commencing at 12 noon. Full Club Changing facilities are available. The tournament is open to all Members of a British Club or Association in Northern Germany and as this is only the second time we are holding a event of this kind, we would like a super attendance at this top German golf course where last year's winner, Chris Williams, is a member. Non-players may join the golfers for the dinner after the tournament – please indicate accordingly on the registration form

I should mention that the Club Management and the Caterer have been very supportive in the arrangements. Although the price does seem quite high, please remember that this is one of the top courses in Germany and guests usually pay 70 € for the green fees alone so thanks to Chris we are very lucky to get this great deal. Should you have any questions about the tournament, then please contact Chris (0174 182 9599).

Cheers

Gwen
