Defending Your Tax Position

Wednesday 16 September 2009 at 6pm

As politicians respond to increased funding requirements in the wake of the credit crisis and economic downturn what are the best strategies for business? Especially relevant in the run up to the German general election, this event is particularly aimed at businesses with cross-border interests.

Ministerialrat Matthias Schenk, Referatsleiter Steuerpolitik/Grundsatzthemen im hessischen Ministerium der Finanzen (Head of Tax Policy for the Finance Ministry in the State of Hessen) will give his personal perspective on the impact of the economic crisis on tax policy.

Christoph Schreiber, member of the Global Board and head of International Taxation Services at PricewaterhouseCoopers, will give a presentation on the business perspective and on what groups can do to minimise their tax risk.

The presentations will take about 30 minutes and will be followed by a panel discussion including the speakers and representatives from industry.

Drinks and refreshments will also be available.

Please use the attached registration form to confirm that you are attending and return it to us by fax at the latest by Wednesday 9 September 2009.

Best regards
