Winning Battles In The Boardroom!- A Day Out With The British Army

Friday 18th September 2009

Have you ever thought about closing that final deal or negotiating the ideal transaction for your business?

We'll look no further! The British Chamber of Commerce In Germany have teamed up with the British Army for another exciting Executive Stretch Day!

The Day will test various skills we use and require in the business world :- for example thinking ability, courage, physical stamina, memory, leadership and control.

Details about this event are as follows:-

Timings

The event will commence at 8.00am on Friday 18th September 2009. Please note that a breakfast and lunch will be provided to us in the field. The afternoon session will include a Leadership talk from the Army General (Major General Nicholas Caplin) and also drinks and afternoon tea. The "activity" part of the day is expected to end at 17.00pm. Please try and arrive promptly. Latecomers will be penalised with points deducted from your team score!

There is also accommodation provided in the Officers' Mess for those who wish to stay the night.

Location

British Army HQ
Rheindahlen
41179 Monchengladbach

(Exit Monchengladbach Heerdt then follow signs to HQ)

(approx 45 mins from Dusseldorf)

As this is an army barracks it will not show up on your sat navs!

All executives are required to bring PASSPORTS as proof of identity which they need to show at the security gate. Please quote the password "Excalibur". You will then be given directions to where the car park is also located.

Itinerary

A brief overview of the day is as follows:-

After breakfast we will be split into teams, followed by a briefing and then escorted to the various Zones located within the barracks.

British Chamber of Commerce in Germany

Each team (4-6 people) will compete and each Zone will have 3 challenges (physical, skill and mental). Teams will decide which of the tasks they want to complete first. If the team completes the task within the set timescale then they will be issued with the highest points. Each team will have a dedicated soldier with them at all times . They will be responsible for monitoring the team score and providing helpful advice wherever possible.
