

Proudly Invites Members
And Their Guests
To Our Very Special Musical Soiree

On behalf of the British Chamber of Commerce in Germany I have great pleasure in inviting you to our Musical Soiree. This will take place on Friday 9th April 2010 commencing at 6.00pm at The Residence of the British Consul General, Rotterdamer Strasse 65, Düsseldorf. All proceeds generated from this event will be donated to the BCCG Charitable Foundation

We are delighted that Orlando Schenk, a bass baritone will be singing during the evening. In addition, Malcolm Scott, the British Consul General will be playing a number of piano pieces.

After studying History and Music at Durham University, Orlando went on to study voice at the renowned Guildhall School of Music & Drama in London.

As an Opera Singer he has a varied repertoire, ranging from Mozart roles such as Figaro, Papageno, Leporello and Don Giovanni, to dramatic roles including Mephistopheles (Faust), Nick Shadow (Rakes Progress) and Baron Scarpia (Tosca), and more modern characters such as Alban Berg's Wozzeck.

When not engaged as a singer, Orlando is active as a director; his last musical production of "Chicago" in 2009 was extremely well received and is being followed this year in the autumn by a production of Loesser's "Guys and Dolls". Future projects include "La Bohème" in the UK later this year along with the theatre piece "Dining with Alice".

He currently lives in Mettmann with his wife Sandra, and is the proud father of two daughters.

A CV for Malcolm Scott, the British Consul General has already been circulated for the January event.

The evening will commence with a drinks reception where there will be the opportunity to network .

Part 1 of the musical soiree will then take place (sit down at 6.30pm) followed by a short break and then part 2. The evening will conclude with a buffet and is expected to end at approximately 9.30pm.

Dress code is business suit.

We look forward to seeing you all there!

Please reply by e-mail or by fax at the latest by Monday 5th April 2010.
