

7 October 2010

Dear BCCG members and guests,

We are pleased to announce a dinner event to be held for the first time in conjunction with the Accountants Group in Germany (AGiG) on 23 November 2010 at 6:30pm in the historic Brückenkeller, Schützenstraße 6, Frankfurt.

The AGiG began in 1977 at the invitation of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW). Today it represents the interests of all professional and student members of the Consultative Committee of Accounting Bodies (CCAB) living and working in Germany.

During the evening, presentations by Ullrich Hartmann on Current developments in financial market regulation in Europe and beyond and Michael Lafferty on UK perspectives on financial market regulation will be woven around a three-course meal. This will be followed by a thought provoking panel discussion moderated by Ralph Atkins, Financial Times, Frankfurt Bureau Chief, on Where is financial market regulation really heading?

Please use the attached registration form to confirm that you are attending and return it to us via fax by 17 November 2010 at the latest indicating your preferred main course.

As parking is very difficult at the venue, we strongly recommend that you take a taxi or use public transport.

If you need hotel accommodation, please note the special offers by BCCG member hotels for members and guests, reservation code "BCCG / British Chamber":
